PREFACE.

The original records of births, deaths, and marriages in Woburn, prior to the year 1843, are contained in two volumes. The first volume embraces the period from 1641 to 1768, and is, in fact, a copy of the original book of entry. According to the Rev. Samuel Sewall, the records of births, deaths, and marriages were first entered in an old blank volume, the leaves of which gradually became loose and badly worn. When Major James Converse was chosen town clerk, in 1688, he copied these records into a book of his own, and used it in place of the original volume. The use of this latter book, however, was resumed by Mr. Samuel Carter, who succeeded Major Converse in the clerk's office in 1690. In December, 1691, Major Converse was again elected clerk, and held the office continuously until 1701. He transferred Mr. Carter's entries to his own book and again made use of it in place of the old volume, although the former book still remained his own private property.

At a town meeting, held March 5, 1705, the fact that the town records proper were in a loose and perishable condition was brought to the attention of the citizens by James Fowle, town clerk, and the town thereupon offered to purchase Major Converse's transcript for twelve shillings. This offer was accepted, and his book was thereafter used as the clerk's register; in it were recorded the births, deaths, and marriages down to and through a portion of the year 1768.

The second volume of births, deaths, and marriages extends from 1768 down to 1844, and is an original. When Mr. Nathan Wyman was chosen town clerk, in March, 1844, he procured separate record books for the births, deaths, and marriages, respectively, and began to keep a more systematic and detailed record than had been done previously. He recopied the entries made by his predecessor from and after Jan. 1, 1843, and commenced an index.

At a town meeting, held Aug. 31, 1846, it was voted: —

"That the town clerk be instructed to cause certain old town records to be rebound, and the two first volumes of the records of births, deaths, and marriages to be copied at the expense of the town."

At a subsequent meeting, held in November of that year, it was further voted: —

"That the town clerk employ the Rev. Samuel Sewall of Burlington (upon the best terms he can) to recopy the records of births, marriages, and deaths from the year 1642 to the year 1843."

In accordance with these votes, Mr. Sewall began his work in January, 1847, and, in July of that year, he inserted an advertisement in The Guide-Post, as the only newspaper then published in Woburn was called, in which he asked the citizens to furnish such additional data as they could, from family records and other authentic sources, to the information contained in the town records. In this advertisement Mr. Sewall goes on to say: —

"From 1793 to 1796, inclusively, there were only 108 births of record, which is 49 less than were recorded as occurring in the corresponding years of the preceding century, viz.: from 1693 to 1696, when the town had been settled but little more than fifty years. From the records it would appear there were no marriages in Woburn in 1745, 1746, or 1750; and as to deaths, the records tell of only 37 from 1785 to 1800, inclusively, and of 6 only from 1801 to 1824, or an aggregate of 43 deaths in 30 years."

From the answers to his advertised inquiry and also from various other sources, Mr. Sewall made large additions to the original number of recorded entries, as will appear more exactly in the extract, which is quoted below, from the preface of his book. All these additions are incorporated into the present publication, and are not in any way distinguishable from those belonging to the original record. Any person desirous of knowing whether a particular entry is a part of the original record, or has been added to it by Mr. Sewall, can readily do so by consulting Mr. Sewall's transcript, in which he will find that the venerable historian has taken pains to give his authority for every name and date which he has interpolated into the original.

Mr. Sewall spent nearly four years in making his transcript, completing it in November, 1850. A careful comparison of his copy with the original shows that the work was done with great fidelity. It is, in fact, practically free from error, and the chirography is precise and legible. He composed a very elaborate preface for it, carefully reviewing the early records, pointing out many interesting facts in connection therewith, and fully explaining the nature and scope of his own work. Did space permit, I should like very much to reproduce these "Prefatory Remarks," as he styles them, in full; but under the circumstances, I can give only the two following interesting extracts from them: —

"And here it seems proper to remark that a great variety is observable in Woburn Records in the spelling of several surnames that have always or for many years been common in the place. What were once uniformly written Tompson or Tomson and Read are now as uniformly written Thompson and Reed. Bucknam has slipped accidentally (to appearance) but irreclaimably into Buckman; and by different hands, and in some instances even by the same hand at different times, Russell is presented as Russel, Kendall as Kendal, and Eames as Ames. Nor are these the most surprising transformations in this kind In the progress of time, Bloggett has hardened into Blodgett, and Brush has softened into Bruce; Butter has melted into Butters, and Tottingham has dwindled into Totman; ffoul has put off its venerable but antiquated dress for the more modern one of Fowle; and Flagg, for mere fashion's sake, called itself Flegg for years, but has at last wisely come back to Flagg again."

It would be difficult to improve upon the happy language of the above quotation. It is, in fact, the most felicitous passage from Mr. Sewall's pen which I have ever read. In the following extract no play on words is attempted; but, from an historical point of view, the facts which it details are of the greater value: —

"To the Births, Marriages, and Deaths originally recorded in the Town Records, numerous additions have been made in this transcript, especially to the Deaths. Some of these additions have been obtained from the County Records, and from private information through the kindness of several individual gentlemen. But I am more particularly indebted for them to the Records of the First Church of Woburn; to a copy of Inscriptions on the Grave Stones in the two ancient Burial Grounds of Woburn, taken by Nathan Wyman, junr., Esq., the present Town Clerk; to inscriptions in the Burial Ground of the once Second Precinct of Woburn, till 1799, now Burlington; to a List of Deaths in the said Second Precinct, kept by its then minister, the late Rev. John Marrett, from his ordination in 1774; to the Records of the Church and Town of Burlington; and to the copious Memoranda of that noted citizen and careful observer of the events of his time, Samuel Thompson, Esq.: For all which and other numerous contributions to the completeness of this Work beyond what the Records alone would have rendered it, I have severally given credit in the proper place.

The Births here copied from the original records are in number	6,675
Do., here added from the above sources, or either of them	102
Total	6,777
The Marriages copied in this transcript from the records are	1,702
Do., here added to the above	119
Total	1,821
The Deaths recorded originally in the Records were only	1,268
Do., additional in the transcript to the Recorded List are	1,537
Total	2,805

N. B. In the above Computation, all Repetitions of Records that have been observed, are excluded."

The above statements show what an invaluable service the Rev. Samuel Sewall did for the records of Woburn, — a service greater, in my opinion, than his work on the History of Woburn, and one entitling him to the gratitude of present and future generations. The town took the following recognition of his work, at a meeting held Jan. 20, 1851: —

"Voted, That the Selectmen be instructed to pay the Rev. Samuel Sewall one hundred and fifty dollars in full for his services in recopying the Records of Births, Marriages, and Deaths for the town from 1640 to 1843."

"Voted, That the town tender their thanks to Mr. Sewall for the faithful and beautiful manner in which he has recopied their records."

Beginning with Vol. I., No. 1, of the Woburn Journal, Oct. 18, 1851, Mr. Nathan Wyman published in full Mr. Sewall's transcript of births, deaths, and marriages, and in addition to them he also printed the further record of births and marriages from 1843 through the year 1854, and the deaths from 1843 through the year 1855, completing the publication July 5, 1856. No attempt was made, however, to improve on the arrangement of the records; and, to judge from the printed result, little pains seem to have been taken to secure an accurate publication of names and dates. It has since become quite common for towns to print their records, or portions of them, in the local newspapers; but Mr. W. R. Cutter informs me that the custom of printing the record of births, marriages, and deaths in such newspapers originated with Mr. Wyman, who may therefore be styled the pioneer in this kind of work.

The annual publication, with which we are now so familiar, of the births, deaths, and marriages in the town reports commenced with the town report for the year ending Feb. 28, 1865. For the single year 1850, however, these records, together with the proceedings of the town meetings held in that year, were published by the town in a little pamphlet which bears date June 1, 1851.

About four years ago I had occasion to consult our records of births, deaths, and marriages, in connection with some professional work. I desired to obtain the full genealogy of a certain Woburn family, so far, at least, as it was to be found in the local records. Owing to the complete absence of any index prior to the year 1843, it was found necessary to look through the whole recorded list of births, deaths, and marriages down to that date. To do this task systematically and accurately involved a great many hours of hard work, as others can testify who have had similar work to perform. I found, furthermore, that the index from 1843 was imperfect, and not to be relied upon where accurate information was sought; and I had to continue my painstaking search throughout the entire body of the records. My experience in this matter set me to thinking, and the result of my mental operations was that I began the digest of the births in the form in which they appear in the pages of this book.

The method which I have adopted differs somewhat from that of any similar publication which has come to my attention. In works of this kind it is usual to reproduce the original record in its entirety, repeating its full phraseology, and perpetuating all the errors and idiosyncrasies of spelling with which all old records abound. An index is then added as separate and distinct matter.

In the system which is here employed no index as such is used or needed. The surnames are all grouped and arranged in alphabetical order, and under each surname the Christian names follow chronologically. There is no repetition of the surname with each entry; the word "born" is omitted, and the words "son" and "daughter" are represented by the abbreviations "s." and "d." Modern orthography is substituted for the ancient spelling, and the whole record is designed to give, in a compact, convenient, and readable form, freed from all unnecessary verbiage, and unobscured by any contortions of the "King's English," a full record of the date and parentage of each child whose birth is recorded in our present town records, down to the year 1873.

Unless one has undertaken a task of this kind, he cannot fully realize the amount of labor which it involves. With Mr. Sewall's additions, there are upwards of 13,300 entries of births from 1641 down to Jan. 1, 1873. To take each entry from the original and insert it in its proper alphabetical place, and afterwards to check off and verify each transcript, was a task of no little magnitude, and required many months of continuous, arduous work. Nor does this statement tell the whole story. Extended research was sometimes demanded before a decision could be reached as to what family, or under what surname, a given entry belonged. The misspellings of the original records rendered this portion of the work extremely difficult and tedious. Ames was confounded with Eames; Cutler with Cutter; Duren with Doran, etc. The spelling of the early Irish names, in particular, was almost grotesque; and, in order even to approximate correctness in the arrangement of many of these surnames, a consultation of assessors' books and files of newspapers, and personal inquiry of individuals were indispensable. As an extreme illustration, it may be stated that one well known Irish surname was spelled differently in each entry. There were nine births recorded and the surname was spelled nine different ways. That I have succeeded, in every instance, in placing the entry under the proper surname, is not to be expected. I hope, however, that, in the main, accuracy in this particular has been secured.

It will be noticed that the ancient mode of dating, known as Old Style, which was in vogue prior to 1752, has not been followed implicitly. Whenever a date occurred in January, or February, or before March 25, I have given the year which, according to New Style, properly represents the fact. There would seem to be no valid reason why the birth of John Richardson, of Woburn, for instance, should be given as Feb. 5, 1731–2, any more than we should, at the present day, refer to George Washington as having been born Feb. 11, 1731–2. If our historians deem it correct to speak of the English Revolution as occurring in Feb., 1689, why should we refer to local events as happening in Feb., 1688–9? While I have not changed the day of the month from the Julian to the Gregorian calendar, as is now universally done in referring to the natal day of the Father of his country, I have, as stated above, uniformly adopted the year which, according to the present method of reckoning time, would be regarded as correct chronology.

The query will undoubtedly arise: "Why did you stop at Jan. 1, 1873?" My answer is, that when I had reached that point with the copy of the births, and thus had brought it to the end of Mr. Nathan Wyman's clerkship of twenty-eight years, the work had begun to assume such proportions that it was deemed advisable, before carrying the work further, to bring the record of deaths and marriages down to the same date. It was not until 1888, however, that this latter task was accomplished; and the whole undertaking had then involved so much more time and labor than I had anticipated, that it was concluded to leave the work there, trusting that the proper public authorities would some time see the advisability of completing the task, the inception of which I had voluntarily assumed.

What has been done is a matter of private enterprise, and for it I have never expected any pecuniary reward. I had a strong wish to see our records placed in an accessible shape for consultation by our citizens, and by any others who might desire to acquaint themselves with the information which they contain.

If the present publication of the births is followed next year by a like publication of the deaths, and, in 1892, by the marriages, the manuscript for both of which is fully ready, the printing of the great bulk of the records of births, deaths, and marriages in Woburn will thus have been accomplished.

The records of the city of Boston, and of the towns of Braintree, Brookline, Dedham, and Lancaster, all in this State, have severally been published in book form, at the expense of the municipalities. In no one of these places, moreover, does the published records of births, deaths, and marriages come down to so recent a date as 1873; so that if the present publication of births is followed in succeeding years by that of the deaths and marriages, the city of Woburn will have a more complete publication of this portion of its records than that of any city or town in Massachusetts. The town of Dedham, however, voted last year to extend its published records down to the date of its two hundred and fiftieth anniversary.

After the publication of our records, down to the year 1873, has been completed, I hope the work of extending the publication down to the incorporation of the city will then be undertaken and accomplished.

In closing, I desire to acknowledge my indebtedness to Mr. William R. Cutter, our librarian, without whose kindly encouragement at the outset this work might not have been undertaken. I am also under obligation to him for many valuable suggestions, and for assistance cheerfully rendered at all times.

To Miss Lottie W. Wyman, who was engaged as a copyist, and who also assisted me in the subsequent verification of each entry, I am indebted for careful and conscientious work, some important portions of which were rendered gratuitously.

In every step of this compilation great precautions have been taken to guard against error by careful comparison and checking of each transcript with the original. I would not assert, however, that it is entirely free from mistakes, for I fully realize "quam difficile caveantur errores."

*The first Irishman to settle in Woburn. He is described as of Woburn in a deed from Michael Bacon, dated June 29, 1674. In a deed to John Tidd, dated June 8, 1675, McGinnis is expressly referred to as an "Irishman," so there can be no doubt about his nationality. He subsequently lived in Billerica and in Watertown. About the year 1687 he was living in Rochester, Rhode Island. (See R. I. Col. Rec., Vol. III., page 234.)

*In the Massachusetts Colonial Records, Vol. VI., page 543, "Math. Peirse of Woob," is said to have been admitted to Freedom, Oct. 31, 1684. This is a mistake of record, and should read Nath. This Nathaniel was son of Robert. There is abundant evidence that there was never, in colonial times, a Matthew Peirce living in Woburn.—Miss M. F. Peirce.

EXTRACT FROM A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF WOBURN.

BY WILLIAM R. CUTTER.

GENEALOGY. — A number of genealogical works relating to Woburn have been published, and these are useful for the information they contain concerning matters connected with the place, and for mention made of individual citizens. In addition to the genealogical notices furnished in Sewall's History, pp. 592-657, may be cited a number of publications.

On the four most numerous families in Woburn have appeared: —

1. Richardson, a large volume, by John A. Vinton (Port., 1876).

2. Wyman, N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg. III., 33, etc., — partly in print and mostly in manuscript; and in preparation still, when its author, Thomas B. Wyman, of Charlestown, died, in 1878. The manuscript is still in the possession of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, 18 Somerset Street, Boston, to whom it was given.

3. Johnson, a contribution by John A. Boutelle, and published at the end of the introduction of Poole's edition of Johnson's Wonder-working Providence (Andover, 1867).

4. Reed, a volume, by Jacob W. Reed (Bost., 1861); particularly Chap. IV. of the work.

Other published genealogies of Woburn families which have appeared as volumes or pamphlets have been the following, the place and date of publication being given: —

Locke, by John G. Locke, Bost., 1853; Gardner, by William W. Greenough, Bost., 1858; Cragin, by Charles H. Cragin, Wash., 1860; Cleveland, by Horace G. Cleveland, Chic., 1879; Cleveland (another), by James B. Cleveland, Albany, 1881; Cleveland (another), by Edmund J. Cleveland, in preparation, 1886; Pierce, by Frederick C. Pierce, Worc., 1880; Pierce (another), by Frederick B. Pierce and Frederick C. Pierce, Worc., 1882; Pierce (another), by Frederick C. Pierce, supposed to be still in preparation, 1889; Learned, by William L. Learned, Albany, 1882; Thompson, by Leander Thompson, Bost., 1887; Converse, by William G. Hill, Malden, 1887; Carter, in N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg. XVII., 51, 52; Carter (another), by Clara A. Carter and Sarah A. Carter, Clinton, 1887; Carter, proceedings at reunion, Woburn, by Carter family association, Bost., 1884; Kendall, by Oliver Kendall, Prov., 1884; Kendall (another), in N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg. XXXIX., 17, by the present writer; Fuller, in N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg. XIII., 351; Brooks, ibid. XXIX., 153, and Wright, ibid. XXXVII., 76, both by the present writer; Simonds, by Edward F. Johnson, Woburn, 1889.

In addition to the above, Mr. H. G. Cleveland has published an article on the Clevelands in England, N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg. XXXIX., 212, and two pamphlets on the Clevelands, 1885. A revision of the Reed and Winn genealogy in J. W. Reed's Reed Family was published by Miss M. W. Carleton, Woburn, 1883.

Genealogies in preparation, in 1889, in addition to those already mentioned, are Burbeen and Walker, by Joseph B. Walker, Concord, N. H.; Fowle by John Warren Johnson, Woburn; Tidd, by Edward F. Johnson, Woburn.*

Notices might be added of such productions as that of the Brush or Bruce family in the Upton Genealogy, by John A. Vinton, 1874; and the Winn family in J. W. Reed's Reed Family, and in the Cleveland Genealogies. Attention is called to Savage's Genealogical Dictionary and Durrie's Index, 1886; also to John A. Vinton's Vinton Memorial, Bost., 1858, and the same author's Symmes Memorial, Bost., 1873.

Three other volumes, at least, of family history, inclusive of genealogy, have been written in Woburn, and published by residents, viz.: Whipple Family, Lowell, 1857, and Burke and Alvord Families, Bost., 1864, both by John A. Boutelle; and the Cutter Family, of New England, by William R. Cutter, Bost., 1871–75.

Two of our local genealogists, both of good fame, are deceased. For obituary notice of John A. Vinton, a resident of Winchester, see N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg., XXXIV. (1880), 127–31; and for an obituary notice of John A. Boutelle, a resident of Woburn, see ibid. XXXVI. (1882), 329.

There are various genealogies in the Winchester Record, such as Thompson, Vol. II., 34–40; Converse (France and England), Vol. II., 208–22; Walker, Vol. II., 226–31; Belknap, Vol. II., 272–82; Swan, Vol. II., 438–59.

The basis of future research in Woburn, when the subject of genealogy is under consideration, will be the digest of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, by Edward F. Johnson. This valuable compilation is noticed elsewhere. Assistance on this subject may be rendered by the manuscript transcripts of inscriptions in the two old burying-grounds at Woburn Centre, collected and arranged in chronological order, with brief illustrative notes and indexes, by the present writer, and noticed under the subject of Burying-grounds in another part of this contribution.

*Since the above was written, two additional genealogies relating to Woburn have been announced: Wyman, by Joseph G. Wyman, of Skowhegan, Me., and Parker, by John L. Parker, of Lynn, Mass. See also an article entitled, "The Butterfields of Middlesex," in the N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register, Vol. XLIV., page 33.

WOBURN RECORDS

OF

BIRTHS, DEATHS, AND MARRIAGES,

FROM 1640 TO 1873.

DEATHS.

ALP CALLY ARRANGED BY

ANDI

PREFACE.

On petition received from the Rumford Historical Association, the City Council of Woburn, in May, 1890, passed the following vote: —

"Ordered, That the Mayor be and hereby is authorized to have printed twenty-five hundred copies of his manuscript record of deaths, and that the expense therefor be paid out of the Miscellaneous Department."

And it is further

"Ordered, That the printed copies be deposited with the City Treasurer, who shall dispose of them to any and all persons for twenty-five cents a copy, and all sums received by him therefor shall be placed to the credit of the Miscellaneous Department."

In pursuance of this vote the following pages are now presented to the public. In order to add to and perfect the record, I engaged Miss J. Gertrude Menard to assist me in comparing it with the data to be found on the gravestones in both the Salem Street and Calvary Cemeteries. Our comparison has resulted in the addition of over four hundred names to the recorded list, and in the discovery of a number of discrepancies between the clerk's records and those chiselled on the gravestones. These additions and corrections have been inserted in their proper chronological place, and for the purpose of distinguishing them from the town clerk's records, the word "Gravestone" has been added to each additional or corrected entry.

In order still further to complete the Woburn record of deaths and to preserve for all time memorials which are slowly but surely passing out of existence, — memorials, too, the most sacred and valuable of all which have been left to us of the fathers, — I have added as an appendix to the record of deaths a transcript of the epitaphs to be found in the First and Second Burying-Grounds. For this transcript I am indebted to my friend, Mr. William R. Cutter, whose copy of the epitaphs in the First or Park Street Burying-Ground was made almost a quarter of a century ago. The changes and removals which have taken place in the Second or Montvale Avenue Burying-Ground since Mr. Cutter revised Mr. Nathan Wyman's manuscript list, in 1870, have somewhat disarranged the chronological order which was then prepared. As, however, the epitaphs of each yard are separately indexed, this slight disarrangement will not interfere with the value of the list for reference.

The recent visits which I have made to the several graveyards in this city, and the inspection of many of their half-obliterated monuments and crumbling gravestones have brought forcibly to my mind the truth of the lines,—

"Monuments themselves memorials need."

We spend large sums of money to perpetuate on polished marble the lineage and virtues of a departed friend; yet it is only a question of time when this single record will become obliterated and forever lost. How important it is then to have those memorials duplicated by being spread on the printed sheet, thus making a record and the only record which can defy "the tooth of time"!

EDWARD F. JOHNSON.

*Nahum Sargeant, a graduate of Dartmouth College, 1784, and a brother of Rev. Samuel Sargeant, of Woburn, died while on a visit at Chelsea, Mass., Oct. 7, 1792, aged thirty-four years. He was minister at Reading, Vt., from 1787 to time of death. He preached in Woburn occasionally, and his first appearance here as a preacher was on Sunday, Oct. 31, 1784, when, in the words of Esquire Samuel Thompson's memoranda, "Mr. Sargeant's brother preached." He also preached on June 5, 1785, when he was described by the above authority as "Mr. Sargeant, the younger." Mention is made of his preaching for his brother, in Woburn, in 1786, 1787, 1789, and 1791. In September, 1786, Mr. Samuel Sargeant was sick with a fever, and on Sept. 3 there was on that account "no preaching"; but on other Sabbaths of that month, and in October, Mr. Nahum Sargeant preached for him. In the latter part of November, 1787, the Rev. Samuel Sargeant was absent on a journey to assist in the ordination of his brother Nahum at Reading, Vt., and there preached the sermon for the day. This sermon was published and a copy is preserved in the Woburn Public Library. Mr. Nahum Sargeant died of the small-pox, in October, 1792, his death being noted in S. Thompson's lists. At the time of his death the disease of small-pox was prevalent in this vicinity. The copy of the above sermon was originally the property of the Rev. Mr. Marrett. The following is its title: "A sermon delivered at the introduction of the Rev. Nahum Sargeant to the pastoral care of the church and congregation in Reading [Vermont], Nov. 23, 1787; by his brother Samuel Sargeant, A. M., pastor of the First Church in Woburn.—Windsor; printed by Hough and Spooner, MDCCLXXXVIII." Text, Isaiah lii. 7; (22 pp.) —W. R. CUTTER.

* "Rev. Thomas Waterman, born in London, Dec. 31, 1774, where he received his education and was first settled in the ministry. He was the pastor of the Baptist Church in Woburn from the year 1811 until his sudden death by apoplexy, March 23, 1814. As a man he was beloved; as a Christian, devoted; as a preacher, sound, faithful, and eloquent. An able defender of civil and religious liberty. His rare intellectual endowments, combined with a great purity of character and kindness of heart secured for him universal esteem. As a tribute to his virtues this stone is erected by his parishioners and friends." (Gravestone.)

Approved,

GEORGE F. BEAN,
Mayor.

PREFACE.

This volume of marriage records completes the publication of the Woburn Records of Births, Deaths and Marriages from 1640 to Jan. 1, 1873. Its arrangement corresponds with that adopted in the previous volumes of Births and Deaths, the surnames being arranged alphabetically, and, under the respective surnames, the Christian names are grouped chronologically. Each marriage record appears twice: once under the name of the man and again under that of the woman. The adoption of this plan renders any index unnecessary, thereby saving to the reader the time and labor usually involved in turning from index to subject matter, and avoiding the danger of error and omission to which every index is exposed.

In 1857, the Legislature of Massachusetts passed the following law: —

"The clerk of every city and town in this Commonwealth, shall make a certified copy of the record of all marriages, recorded in the books of said city or town, where either or both of the parties were resident in any other town in the Commonwealth at the time of said marriage; and he shall also, as far as the same is practicable, make a like copy of all such marriages recorded in any parish records, or in any records kept by any clergyman or magistrate within said town; and the said clerk shall transmit said certified copies to the clerk of the city or town in which such party or parties were resident at the time of said marriage."

This law applied only to marriages solemnized prior to the year 1800. In accordance with its provisions there were transmitted to the town clerk of Woburn, records of over three hundred marriages solemnized in other municipalities in this Commonwealth, in which one or both of the contracting parties were residents of Woburn. These marriages are included in this publication; and, in each instance, the name of the town or city where the marriage occurred is also given. I have also inserted the record of all marriages found in the first volume of the Second Parish Church Records (Burlington) covering the period from 1735 down to 1828.

Furthermore, I have incorporated into this volume, by way of foot-notes, a few extracts taken from the Middlesex County Court Records. These records contain a great deal of interesting and hitherto unknown facts about the early settlers of Woburn, and shed new light on their life and their customs, their faults and their virtues. The greater portion of the material thus obtained could not, with propriety, be printed in this work and has been reserved for future use. I may state that my researches in this direction have proved, among other things, that the first volume of the Woburn Records is wholly in the handwriting of Major William Johnson, the second town clerk of Woburn, and is, therefore, prior to 1672, a copied record. The records kept by his father, Capt. Edward Johnson, the first town clerk, certified extracts of which can be found among the court files at Cambridge, are not in all cases identical with the existing town record. Moreover, the chirography of Capt. Johnson does not correspond with that to be found in our first volume of town records. As an illustration of the handwriting of father and son I have added at the end of this Preface fac-simile reproductions of two papers discovered among the Middlesex court files. A comparison of these fac-similes with the writing in the first volume of the Woburn Records, or with the fac-simile specimen of the town records printed in Poole's edition of "Johnson's Wonder-Working Providence," will convince any one of the truth of the above statement as to the authorship of our first volume of records. Mr. William R. Cutter was the first person to suspect that this volume of records was copied, and recent discoveries have fully sustained him in the opinions expressed in "The Woburn Journal," March 8, 1889.

The following figures,* obtained by actual count, may be of interest: —

Number of persons whose birth is published in Part I	12,755
Number of persons whose death is published in Part II	6,326
Number of persons whose marriage is published in Part III . . .	7,662
Total	26,743

It is my intention, subject to the approval of the proper authorities, to publish with the city report of next year the record of births from Jan. 1, 1873, to Dec. 31, 1890, inclusive, and with it such additions and corrections of the first published record of births (1640 to 1872 inclusive) as have been discovered and furnished by those people who have taken an interest in perfecting it. With the city report of 1892, I hope in like manner to publish the record of deaths from 1873 to Dec. 31, 1890, inclusive; and, in 1893, the record of marriages for the same period. When all this shall have been done, I recommend that for the decade ending 1900, and thereafter in each succeeding decade, the publication be continued in similar form. By omitting in the future from the annual city report the printed record of births, marriages and deaths, which has appeared there in years past without arrangement suitable for future reference, the publication of the records in the manner here recommended will impose little, if any, additional expense on the city.

I wish more of our citizens would take the pains to supply from family registers and other sources the omissions which are found to exist in the town clerk's records. Such supplied records may prove of great value in the future, not merely as a matter of family history, but in the adjustment and settlement of estates, and in the determination of other matters of legal and pecuniary importance. Many an applicant for a pension at the present day finds the omission of some portion of his family records to be a great obstacle to the successful prosecution of his claim. Indeed, no person can afford to allow such records to remain inaccurate or imperfect, for they are liable to prove of essential value at any time. I shall always be pleased to receive from reliable sources any informaton about our records, and shall see to it that, in subsequent publications, all valuable matter thus contributed is printed in proper form and place.

* These figures are exclusive of entries inserted in foot-notes. In the Preface to Part I it was stated there were "upwards of 13,300 entries of births." That statement was based on a calculation of figures found in an old town report.

*Received from Alva S. Wood.

† The Bulfinch family of Woburn, of Lynn and of Waldoboro,' Me., are descended from John Bulfinch of Boston, a ship-joiner by trade, who married, first, Elizabeth Bumstead of Boston, Nov. 3, 1726, and, second, Mary Peabody of Boxford, May 10, 1739. He died about 1774, and his son John, born July 17, 1727, also a ship-joiner, married Anna Breed of Boston, Sept 10, 1754. He died in Lynn, Feb. 4, 1812. His son, Jeremiah, born in Boston, in 1759, died in Maine, Nov. 19, 1846. He married, first, July 22, 1787, Rebecca Cheever (nee Johnson), and second, March 19, 1807, Hannah Flint (nee Newhall). He had fourteen children, two of whom, John and Henry, were graduated at Harvard, and the seventh, Amos Breed (born in Lynn, March 25, 1799), married, June, 1821, Hannah Coombs, daughter of Nicholas and Hannah (Miller) Coombs, of Marblehead. She was born Sept. 2, 1802, and died Dec. 20, 1883. They had issue born in Lynn: (1) Henry, born May 14, 1822; (2) Susan, born Oct. 9, 1823; (3) Julia Ann, born June 23, 1825; (4) Maria, born July 7, 1828; (5) Lucinda, born Aug. 11, 1831, died April 2, 1878. The births of four other children are published in Part I., where the birth of Charles, given as April 8, 1841, should read, April 8, 1839.

The emigrant ancestor is believed to be the John Bulfinch, referred to by Savage, who settled in Salem as early as 1640. He returned to England and died at Chatham, Kent County, about 1680. Administration on his estate in this country was granted to his daughter, Katherine Bell, widow of Abraham Bell of Charlestown.—Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. II., page 334.

I have in manuscript considerable genealogical data on the Bulfinch family and should be pleased to correspond with any of that name who are interested in their family history.

*In April, 1659, Joseph Carter of Woburn is released from all ordinary trainings on condition that he shall pay five shillings annually to the use of the military company where he lives.—Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. I., page 175. In April, 1672, and again in 1673, Joseph Carter of Woburn renewed his license for keeping an ordinary for the year ensuing.—Ibid, Vol. III., pages 23 and 58. Owing to the loss of Vol. II. of the Court Records, covering the period 1664—1671, there is no record of the first grant of a license to Joseph Carter; but there is on record among other papers, dated 1671, the following letter, a fac-simile of which appears in the Preface to this book:

"To our Honored Magistrates Assembled in the County Court. Much Honored, so pleased to hear the request of us who have have hereunto subscribed: Namely that Joseph Carter may be licensed to keep an ordinary in our town in the room of John Sear who is willing to lay it down and according too our bounden duty we hope to remain yours to honor and obey in the Lord.

By Order of the Selectmen of Woburn.

EDWARD JOHNSON."

See notes under Sears, Walker, Pierce and Tottingham.

†In Dec., 1677, Capt. John Carter and Lieut. William Johnson are allowed ten shillings apiece costs for attending the courts to give in evidence against the "Anna baptists."—Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. III., page 207.

DUTTON.*

* In 1651, Thomas Dutton was convicted of beating his wife, although both he and his wife denied the fact. The Court sentenced him to be admonished and to pay a fine of five pounds and costs.—Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. I., page 239. In 1668, Thomas Dutton brought an action of slander against Michael Bacon, Jr., who had charged him with being a thief. Capt. Edward Johnson, aged 69, and his wife Susan, aged 71, testified in this case "that Michell Baken, Junior, cam to our Hous & shewed us a Napkin & spoone which he said they found in Goodman Dutton's" and when the witnesses said that "Dutton was not mistrusted for any such thing as theft the said Michell Baken Junior said he had word from one of Reading that the said Dutton was known to bee soe there: & therefore wisht him [i. e., Johnson] to search for his goods att his house." Twenty-two citizens of Reading signed an endorsement of Dutton to the effect that he had "Lived Amongste us in The Towne of Reeding for the Space of Seven years or Thereabouts: did carry himself well & honestly Towards his Neighbors, etc." The following paper also appears as evidence in this case and is very valuable for its autographs: "Wee whose Names are under written testyfy that Thomas dutton having lived amongst us in the Towne of woburne nere the space of tenne yeares, has bine very Industrus in his calling and has not to our knowledg bine any way given to steall or to take any thing that is not his owne. Josias Conuars, William Johnson, Mathew Johnson, James Conuars, Samuell Conuars, John Broockes, Thomas Peirce, Samual Walker senyer, John Russell Junior, henry broockes, Isack Broockes, Edward win, Richard Gardner, John Russell Sen., John Carter." The plaintiff obtained a verdict of fifteen pounds. See note under Tottingham.

* David Evans removed to Pennacook about 1731. In 1762, his sons, David and John, were among the first settlers of Fryeburg, Me.— S. A. Evans, M.D., of Conway, N. H.

† This David Evans was a son of Nathaniel Evans of Reading. By deed dated May 2, 1750, Nathaniel Evans conveys his homestead in Reading to his "dutiful son," David. In 1761, David conveys it to Jonathan Evans of Reading, and Hannah Evans, wife of David, releases dower.

‡ Rachel Evans was appointed administratrix of Jonas Evans of Woburn in 1784.

The will of Jonathan Evans of Reading, who died in 1798 makes mention of his wife Eunice, of Jonathan "my eldest son," of sons Thomas and Samuel (the youngest), of grandsons, Jonas and Jacob Evans, "son of my third son Jonas," of son Amos and children of Amos [Rachel Carter and Elizabeth Evans] of eldest daughter Eunice Alexander, and of "youngest surviving daughter Lois Evans."

There was also a Jonathan Evans of Wilmington who died in 1783, and in his will mention is made of his father, Thomas Evans, to whom he gives "all the Land which I am intitled to in Consequence of my inlisting into the Continental army for Dureing the war. Likewise all the wages and Cloathing which is Due to me for my Services in the army." The testator refers to his sisters Ruth Upton, Lydia Cowdri, Anna Beard, and Sarah Eaton, and to his brothers Sherebiah and Thomas Evans.

There is on record at Cambridge an inventory of the estate of Henry Evans [of Malden?] who was "drowned about the first of March 1666-7."

* Oct. 1, 1650, Thomas Stow and others bring an action against Hopestill Foster, alleging that the defendant has deprived them of 15£ per annum, given unto them by the last will of John Big, of Maidstone. The jury found for the plaintiffs, who later, in 1652, brought another action concerning land that was John Big's of Maidstone, in Kent.—Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. I., pages 13 and 27.

Elizabeth, relict widow, was appointed administratrix of the estate of Hopestill Foster in June, 1679.—Ibid. Vol. III., page 279.

* In 1876 Rev. William W. Johnson of North Greenfield, Wisconsin, published a genealogy entitled "Records of the Descendants of David Johnson of Leominster, Mass." (Milwaukee, 1876.) In his introduction he assumes that David Johnson was born in Woburn between the years 1700 and 1710; that he was a son of Josiah Johnson of Woburn, and great-grandson of Capt. Edward Johnson. The publication of the Woburn Records of Births convinced Rev. Mr. Johnson that his assumptions in regard to the ancestry of David Johnson were erroneous, and at his request I undertook to determine the parentage of David Johnson. After a somewhat extended research, the following facts were ascertained: John Johnson, the emigrant ancestor, and a shoemaker by trade, first settled in Ipswich as early as 1635, and removed to Andover a few years later with his son Thomas. (See deed from Thomas Johnson of Andover to Alexander Lovewell of Ipswich, dated Sept. 12, 1715, and recorded in Essex Registry of Deeds, at Salem, book 32, page 42.) Susanna, wife of John Johnson, died in Andover Sept. 12, 1683. Thomas Johnson, the son, a carpenter, was born in 1631, married Mary Holt of Andover in 1657, and died there Feb. 15, 1719. His first wife died Nov. 15, 1700, and July 14, 1703, he married, second, Damaris Marshall of Billerica. Josiah Johnson, youngest son of Thomas and Mary (Holt) Johnson, was born in Andover Oct. 29, 1683. He married Annis Chandler June 19, 1711, and moved to that part of Lancaster, now Harvard, about 1725, and died there Oct. 15, 1727. His son David was born in Andover Aug. 20, 1715, and died in Leominster Nov. —, 1799. He married, first, Mary Warner, Feb. 22, 1739, and, second, Prudence ——. His will, dated July 30, 1798, is on file at Worcester. For more detailed information see probate records and deeds of Essex County, probate records of Middlesex and Worcester Counties, and town records of Andover, published in Andover Townsman, 1888-89, by Rev. C. C. Carpenter, a copy of which is in Woburn Public Library.

* She afterwards married John Wells.

†"And said Johnson declared before marriage in presence of a number of witnesses, that he was about to take Mrs. Ruth Kendall without any of the effects of her former husband, Ephraim Kendall, deceased, and that she was now clothed with his effects or of his providing as those witnesses could testify."

‡ Son of William (born 1710) and Elizabeth (Pierce) Johnson and grandson of Ebenezer and Sarah (Winn) Johnson. William Johnson, Jr., removed to Acton about 1770 and, about 1774, to Westford. Sometime prior to 1788 he removed to Littleton. He, or his son William and possibly both, afterwards lived in Ashby. His wife was a daughter of Nathaniel and Sarah Kendall.

Nathaniel Kendall died in Woburn in 1776. His will, dated April 22, 1776, makes mention of his grandson, John Kendall (son of John Kendall, deceased) to whom he gives his messuage bounded south and west by the Country road, east by lands of Joseph Winn and north by lands of Timothy Winn; and of his daughters, Anna Tyler [wife of Moses Tyler, and formerly wife of John Munroe], Elizabeth Johnson [wife of Samuel], Sarah Johnson [wife of William, then of Westford], and Abigail Bruce, deceased, [wife of William of Marlboro'.] The will also speaks of the heirs of John Lock, alias Kendall. The residue of the testator's estate was to be divided among the heirs of his four daughters. In 1776 these heirs appear to have been: (1) Anna Munroe, aged 17, Sarah Munroe 11, Lydia Munroe 9, Benjamin Tyler 5, and Jonas Tyler 3; (2) Rhoda, Olive, John and Jesse Johnson, children of Samuel and Elizabeth Johnson; (3) William, Nathaniel, Sarah [afterwards wife of Peter Whitcomb], Martha, Anna, Lucretia, Betty and Lydia Johnson, who were children of William and Sarah Johnson, then living in Westford; and (4) John Bruce, aged 17, and Martha Bruce, aged 15, both of Marlboro'.

The following signatures are found appended to a receipt of the residue of the estate in 1790:—William Young, Jonas Reed, Thomas Gleason, Samuel Johnson, James Reed, John Bruce, Moses Tyler, Guardian, William Johnson, Guardian, Joshua Walker [formerly guardian of Rhoda, Olive, John and Jesse Johnson], Abel Severance, John Wilkins, Elisha Flagg, Elisha Morse, John Bruce and Nathaniel Bruce.

* In 1657, Francis Kendall is released from all "Ordnary Traynings."—Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. 1., page 143. See note under Tottingham. There is a well authenticated tradition in the Kendall family that Francis Kendall was stolen from a Ralph Miles in England and brought to this country.

‡ He was a tailor. In 1718 he sold his homestead of 120 acres in Woburn to Samuel Green, bounded on the east "by the highway to Charlestown from the West End of said Woburn, and northerly and northwest by the land and medow of Thomas Kendall, Jr." Ralph Kendall, with his wife, Abigail, then removed to Lancaster, where six of his children, including Benjamin, were born. Benjamin lived in Sherborn. He died testate in 1805, leaving a widow, Eunice; children, Benjamin, Timothy, Kezia Boden (wife of William), Lydia Holbrook (wife of Micah), Eunice Burbank (wife of Samuel), Elizabeth Houghton (wife of Benjamin); granddaughter, Asenath Pratt, and only brother, Elisha Kendall. But was Benjamin of Sherborn the son of Ralph? Apparently not.

† In June, 1679, Isaac Richardson was convicted of great inhumanity towards his apprentice boy "Joseph Andras, by burning of his breech at ye fire." He was sentenced to pay forty shillings to the County and the charge of the boy's cure, and the Selectmen of Woburn were ordered to dispose of said boy to some other master.— Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. III., page 276.

‡ "Thomas Richardson, according to tradition, was son of Thomas Richardson, Senior, of Woburn."— S. Sewall. Administration on Thomas Richardson's estate was granted to his widow, Mary, in 1651. In the division of the estate of Samuel Richardson, in 1658, reference is made to his widow, Joanna.

* In Dec., 1671, John Russell, Senior, was in Court "for renouncing communion with the church of Christ . . . absenting himself from the Public ministry of God's word on the Lord's dayes and turning his back on the holy ordinance of Baptisme and refusing to partake with the Church in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, joining himself to the Schismatical assembly of the Anabaptists, and taking office power among them, casting out John Johnson who was a member with them . . . the Court considering the . . . former endeavors legally used for his conviction and reformation and . . his obstinacy" ordered him to give bond to appear at the next Court of Assistants. — Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. III., page 14. In June, 1675, Thomas Foster, John Russell, Senior, John Russell, Junior, are fined for not attending Public worship of God and for "contempt and ordinary frequenting the meetings of the Anabaptists, on Lord's dayes."— Ibid, page 127. John Johnson, John Wilson, Senior, and his wife, Henry Somers and his wife, John Wilson, Junior, Caleb Farly and Hopestill Foster are fined for absenting themselves from Public worship on the Lord's days. — Ibid, page 128. See Sewall Hist. of Woburn, p. 153 et seq. and notes under Cleveland and Farley. Sewall is mistaken (Ibid, p. 157) in concluding that those persons in Woburn of Baptist sentiments remained quiescent after the troubles in 1671. They continued their agitation and heresies in spite of the admonitions and penalties of the courts.

* In 1653, "John Seir is alowed by this Court to keep a house of Comon enterteiment at Woburne."—Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. I., page 39. This license was renewed for several successive years. In April, 1662, "John Seir of Woburne, [and others elsewhere] are licensed to continue their houses for comon enterteimt & to sell wine by retaleing the same, but are prohibited retaleing strong Waters." It was at the same term of court that, for the first time, Samuel Walker of Woburn is "granted liberty to still strong waters & to retale the same for one yeare ensueing on conditions above expressed." These conditions were: "that no strong waters be suffered to be tipled or dranke in or about any house or place of any such their retaleing, nor sold to any but to masters of familyes of good report, or Travellers in their Journey, On penalty of forfeiting their licenses, and five pounds to the County & that they give bond to ye vallew of 20£ a peece for the performance of this order of Court." * In April, 1679, the last will of Henry Tottingham of Woburn, deceased, was presented to court by Elijah Tottingham his executor.— Middlesex County Court Records, Vol. III., page 268.

In the suit of Capt. Johnson vs. Ensign John Carter, Dec. 1658, Henry Tottingham, aged 50, testifies. Other witnesses were: William Simonds, aged about 47, Robert Pierce about 38, Joseph Knight about 34, William Locke about 30, William Johnson about 30, Matthew Johnson about 26 (?), Richard Holden, about 50, Thomas Dutton about 39, Francis Kendall about 38, Edward Converse about 68, John Mousall about 63, James Thompson about 65, Josiah Converse about 40, James Converse about 38, Henry Brooks about 66 and Richard Gardner about 39. The following account of this suit is taken from the Court Record:—

"Capt. Edward Johnson plaintiff, against Ensign John Carter, for slanderous speeches against him, upon attachment, on file, dated Dec. 22, 1658, both parties appeared personally in Court, and joined issue in the case, the which being fully heard, with the witnesses presented by both parties which are on file with the records of this Court, the jury . . . . brought in their verdict, finding for the plaintiff in manner following, (i.e.) that the defendant both publicly and solemnly in the front of the military company at Woburn, upon their next training day, in the former part of the day, as soon as the clerk of the band hath called over the list, shall make this following acknowledgment, in these following words, viz:—

I, John Carter do acknowledge that I have wronged, slandered, & defamed, Capt. Edw: Johnson in saying that he the said Capt. Johnson, did falsify the Town Records, for which I am sorrowful.

And in case the defendant shall refuse or neglect to make the said acknowledgment in manner as is above expressed, he the said defendant shall pay unto the plaintiff or his assigns, five pounds sterling in current pay of New England. Also the defendant is to pay unto the plaintiff costs of Court, two pound eighteen shillings and nine pence."— County Court Records, Vol. I., page 101. Dec. 1658.

* Samuel Walker was granted his first license "to still strong waters & to retale the same" in Woburn by the County Court in April, 1662. This license was renewed in 1663 and probably for several successive years. It was not until April, 1674, however, that he was licensed "to keep ordinary" at Woburn, and instead of being the first innholder at Woburn as has been stated by Sewall (Hist. Woburn, page 170), he was the third, being preceded by Joseph Carter and "John Seir." (See notes under Carter and Sears.) Thomas Walker kept an ordinary at Sudbury. In 1682, Henry Somers succeeded Samuel Walker as innkeeper in Woburn.

In the suit of Dutton vs. Bacon in April, 1668 (see note under Dutton), Israel Walker aged about 70, testified.

† A daughter of James and Elizabeth Wright, and a sister to Elizabeth Wright and Mary Wright, each of whom married a Kittredge. There were younger sisters, Ruth, born about 1723, and Rachel, born about 1733, and brothers, James, Joseph, Thomas and Nathaniel. On the decease of the father in 1735 all the real estate subject to the widow's dower was set off to the third son, Thomas John Holt and his wife Sarah, about 1748 or earlier, were the owners of what is now known as the Reuel Carter homestead on Main street in North Woburn, near the Wilmington line. In 1749 Holt and his wife conveyed it to James Sawyer, "Leather Dresser," and bounded it south by land of Daniel Fisk; east, on land of Dea. Josiah Wright, deceased; north, on land of Giles Alexander, and west on the road. Sawyer became an innholder, and mortgaged the property to Harvard College, by whom it was assigned to Giles Alexander. The latter apparently foreclosed the mortgage, and in 1752 conveyed it to William Tay, Jr. See, further, an article in "The News" of Woburn, April, 1891, on estates in North Woburn, written by the late Cyrus Thompson.

Dea. Edward Convers,[1] born (as is supposed) Jan. 30, 1590, died Aug. 10, 1663. He may have married in England, Jane Clarke, who, in that case, probably died before 1617. He married as early as 1617, in England, Sarah ——, who died Jan. 14, 1662. He came in the fleet with Winthrop in 1630, and settled in Charlestown. He took a prominent part in the settlement of Woburn in 1640, and in that year erected the first dwelling h within the then limits of Woburn. There seems little doubt that it oc very nearly the site of the old house now owned by Abijah Thompson on the east side of Main street in Winchester, a fe the Aberjona River. Shortly after, he erected the Conver house. See Winchester Record, Vol. I., pp. 223, 242, 24 article by the present writer in the Winchester Star for July Convers married again, Sept. 9, 1662, Joanna (Corbin) Sprague, w Ralph Sprague; she died Feb. 24, 1680.

His children were:

†2. (Dea.) Josiah,[2] b. 1617; d. Feb. 3, 1690.

* See Richardson Memorial, pp. 191 and 192. The statement on p. 194 of the Richardson Memorial (No. 1643), as to parentage of Mary Convers, is erroneous, though a common mistake. She was the daughter of Samuel Convers, who was a son of Allen Convers, mentioned in the will of Deacon Edward Convers,[1] as "my kinsman."

FIFTH GENERATION.

57.

James Convers[5] m. Kezia ——, who died Dec. 30, 1736. He was a tailor. Had a daughter:

107. Eleanor,[6] b. March 21, 1735.

67.

Ebenezer Convers[5] m. Ruth ——, and by her had the following:

108. Benjamin,[6] b. Oct. 14, 1732; d. March 6, 1824; m., Aug. 6, 1772, Sarah[6] Wright (No. 83). She died June 24, 1824.
109. Robert.[6]
110. James,[6] of Cambridge, currier.
111. Josiah.[6]
112. Ruth.[6]
113. Mary.[6]

87.

Josiah Convers[5] m. Sarah Evans of Reading, 1732. She survived him. They had:

†114. Josiah,[6] b. Jan. 27, 1734.
115. Samuel,[6] b. Nov. 23, 1735; probably m. Mary Tyler, Oct. 9, 1760.
116. Sarah,[6] b. Aug. 26, 1737; m., April 10, 1760, Bartholomew Richardson, who died June 14, 1812. She died Feb. 1, 1825.
117. Zachariah,[6] b. Dec. 28, 1741.
118. John,[6] b. Oct. 23, 1748.

SIXTH GENERATION.

114.

Josiah Convers[6] m., March 28, 1758, Hephzibah Brooks (who was b. Jan. 15, 1739, and d. March 11, 1813.).
They had:

119. Josiah,[7] b. March 14, 1759; d. Sept. 8, 1840.
120. John,[7] b. March 3, 1761.
121. Jesse,[7] b. Feb. 9, 1765; d. July 17, 1864; m. Susanna Gould of Stoneham, who died Oct. 10, 1825.
122. Joshua,[7] b. Jan. 20, 1767; lived to be over 100 years old.
123. Jonathan,[7] b. March 5, 1772.
124. Luther,[7] b. Jan. 26, 1777; d. March 11, 1861.
125. William,[7] b. Sept. 11, 1780.

The family of Allen Convers (mentioned in the will of Dea. Edward Convers[1] as "my kinsman") is to be carefully distinguished from the subject of the foregoing sketch. The same names occur in both families, a circumstance which has been a frequent source of error; and several names occurring in the Woburn records are to be referred to the family of Allen Convers.

He was at Salem, Mass. in 1639, and at Woburn in 1642, where he taught school in 1676. He died of small-pox, April 19, 1679. His wife Sarah died three days after her husband, probably of the same disease. They had: Zachariah, Elizabeth, Sarah, Joseph, Mary, Theophilus, Samuel, Mary (2d), and Hannah, apparently all born in Woburn. But though his immediate family was thus numerous, his race is perhaps now extinct.

The foregoing notes have been to a considerable degree compiled from original sources of information, though with such help as could be obtained from other works upon the subject. I desire especially to acknowledge my indebtedness for much valuable information derived from the history of the Convers family, compiled by William G. Hill, Esq., whose manuscript I was permitted to see before its publication.

In regard to the ancient mode of dating, known as Old Style, I have followed the method understood to have been followed by the editor of these volumes, so that the date Feb. 27, 1709–10 has been here written Feb. 27, 1710, and other dates in like manner.

ALFRED C. VINTON.
